Directive concerning the Rights of Representation of EPFL for Matters regarding Research LEX 3.1.2

20 May 2011 (status as at 1 January 2016)

Article 1 Power of representation and substitute

[1] The legally authorised representatives of EPFL for matters regarding research are the Vice-provost for Research and the Director of Research Affairs, each with the right of first signature. They may also sign jointly.

[2] The second signature is delegated to one of the three coordinators for their respective area of responsibility (International Funding, National Funding, Internal & Non-profit Funding).

[3] Paragraphs 1 and 2 apply subject to specific regulations by the funding source.

Article 2 Attestation of the powers of representation

The attestation of the powers of representation must be signed by the General Counsel of EPFL, or in her absence by the Secretary General.

Article 3 Coming into force

This Directive comes into effect on 20 May 2011, version 1.3, status as at 1 January 2016.

On behalf of the EPFL Direction:
