The Direction of the École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne, based on Art. 34 of the Federal Act on the Federal Institutes of Technology of 4 October 1991¹, hereby adopts the following:

Art. 1 Definition
The present directive lays out the rules and regulations concerning fees for services provided in favour of EPFL or other individuals concerned.

Art. 2 Contribution obligation
1 These fees are obligatory and are payable for each academic semester commenced.
2 Fees are payable for all students studying the CMS or a Bachelor’s or Master’s degree course.
3 Fees are also payable for students enrolled at EPFL, but on an exchange.

Art. 3 Amounts
1 For the contribution to the EPFL students’ association (Agepoly), the fee is CHF 25.00.
2 For the contribution to the EPFL students’ foundation, the fee is CHF 9.00.
3 For the contribution for use of the sports facilities, the fee is CHF 16.00.
4 For the contribution for accident insurance in case of death or disability, the fee is CHF 3.00.²

Art. 4 Coming into force
The present directive came into force on 1 September 2004.

On behalf of the Direction of the École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne,

President

Vice-President for Academic Affairs

Professor P. Aebischer

Professor Ph. Gillet

Comment: this Directive has been reviewed as part of the 2017 reorganisation. No modifications were made to this directive as a result of the review.

Lausanne, 30 August 2010

¹ RS 414.110
² Modification of 30 August 2010